ADVOCATES OF CUBAN RECIPRO-CITY WIN IN REPUBLICAN
CONFERENCE.

AFTER PROTRACTED DEBATE

A Number of Ballots Are Taken and
the Ways and Means Committee Is Sustained by a Vote of From 79 to
57 to 85 to 31—Resolution Adopted
Gives the Form for an Agreement
With Cuba.

Washington, March 19.—The advocates of Cuban reciprocity scored a decisive victory at the conference of Republican members of the house of representatives, the proposition of Chairman Payne of the ways and means committee, for a 20 per cent reduction of duty, with the Sibley amendment, limiting the duration of the reduced rates to Dec. 1, 1903, being adopted by a vote of 85 yeas to 31 nays. This result was reached at 11:30 o'clock, after a protracted debate followed by a series of exciting roll calls. The first test was when Mr. Payne concluded the speech making with a motion for the previous question on all pending propositions.
This motion prevailed—78 to 56.
A vote was then taken on a substitute
offered by Representative Dick of Ohio
in behalf of those opposing the reciprocity plan, offering in its stead a plan of direct payment to Cuba covering several years. This was defeated—57 to 79. An amendment by Mr. Morris of Minnesota, to take off the differential on refined sugar was defeated—50
to 72.

The ways and means proposition for reciprocity with the Sibley amendment limiting the duration, was then agreed to—85 to 31. While the voting was in progress quite a number of those who oppose the ways and means plan left the chamber.
Immediately following this vote the conference adjourned, and the long pending controversy over the Cuban reciprocity was determined so far as the Republican conference was concerned. It still remains to be dealt with in the house. The Payne resolution, as adopted, gives the general form of a bill, authorizing the president to negotiate a commercial agreement with Cuba for reciprocal and equivalent concessions, by which the rates of duty shall be reduced at least 20 per cent ad valorem on all articles imported from Cuba into the United States. It also provides that the United States immigration and exclusion laws shall be enacted by the government of Cuba as a preliminary to reciprocity. The Sibley amendment which is adopted as a part of the Payne resolution, recites that the forgoing 20 per cent reduction shall be "limited in its duration and effect to the first day of December, 1903."

PROTECTION OF PRESIDENT.

Senate Has the Measure Under Consideration During the Day.

Washington, March 19.—For three hours the senate had under consideration the bill providing for the protection of the president of the United States and for the punishment by the United States of those who commit assaults on him. Mr. Bacon (Ga.) opposed the bill and Mr. Hoar (Mass.)
and Mr. Mason (Ill.) supported it.
Mr. Bacon's argument followed the lines of his speech delivered 10 days ago. Mr. Hoar's speech was largely legal and constitutional. He maintained the right of the government to protect itself against assaults upon its sovereignty through the president.
Mr. Mason made an attack upon anarchy and its methods, and incidentally sharply criticized the amendment to the bill offered by Mr. Bacon. He denounced it as opening the door to special privileges for the benefit of assassin presidents. This drew Mr.
Bacon's fire. He considered Mr. Mason's criticism a personal reflection on himself and resented it with heat.
An explanation by the Illinois senator cleared the atmosphere.

Earlier in the day a controversy was precipitated by the effort of Mr. Rawlins (Utah) to have printed as a document some Philippine correspondence.
Eventually the matter was ordered printed as requested.

Would Reduce King's Bank Account.

London, March 19.—King Edward's bank balance narrowly escaped a reduction to the extent of £229 for a forged endorsement of a check. The latter was drawn "payable to bearer"
by General Sir Dighton Probyn, keeper of the king's privy purse. The check was presented at Coutt's bank,
where the cashier discovered the forgery.
When the man who presented the check was questioned by the cashier he ran away, but was captured and later remanded to prison. The prisoner gave the name of Alfred Reynolds.

American Jockeys Very Successful.

Paris, March 19.—American jockeys had 22 mounts in six races during the contests at Maisons Laiffite during the day and were placed 11 times. B. J.
Rigby got one first and one second place; J. Reiff and W. B. Buchanan got one first place each; Milton Henry got two second and two third places,
and Archie McIntyre obtained two second and one third place.

FEAR LIVES ARE LOST.

Steamer Burns in a Harbor Front Fire
at Hoboken.

New York, March 19.—Fire destroyed the pier of the Phoenix Steamship line on the Hoboken river front, with many bales of cotton and hay; burned that company's vessel, the British Queen, to a hulk; consumed several lighters and their cargoes, damaged a dock belonging to the Barber Steamship line and for a time threatened the property of the Holland-American line and the huge Campbell stores.
The loss, according to estimates, will approximate $1,000,000.

Whether any lives were lost was most difficult to learn. While the conflagration was at its height and after it had been reduced by the firemen and fire boats, rumors were rife that several men perished. It is tolerably certain that Chief Engineer Scott of the British Queen, was burned to death on her, and that a sailor named Jansen met the same fate. One of the men who escaped says that he saw several men leap into the water when the steamer became enveloped in fire
and he saw few if any of those rescued.

The quartermaster of the ruined ship said that the crew were in her forecastle and he surmised that if all escaped they did so with difficulty.

It is not unlikely that some of the longshoremen and stevedores, who swarmed the vessel, may still have to be accounted for.

MINERS IN CONVENTION.

An Important Meeting Being Held in the Anthracite Districts.

Shamokin, Pa., March 19.—The most important convention of hard coal miners since that which resulted in the memorable strike of 1900 began here during the day. The three anthracite coal districts, known technically as districts 1, 7 and 9, United Mine Workers of America, are represented by over 600 delegates, the majority of whom presented their credentials. The failure of the operators to meet the officials of the miners' union was the principal topic of discussion among the delegates prior to the convention. Many of them are insistent in their demand for recognition of the union but the impression prevails that if other concessions are made by the operators the matter of recognition will be permitted to rest for the present. The convention merely organized and the proceedings were simply preliminary to the more important work to follow. President Mitchell of the International Mineworkers'
union will preside at the meetings.

TO HEAD MARCONI OFF.

German Government Opposed to a Universal Wireless Telegraphy Trust.

Berlin, March 19.—Emperor William has issued an order as the result of recent tests in which he designates
the Slaby-Arco system of wireless telegraphy for exclusive use in the German navy and between the coast signal stations. It is estimated that the Slaby-Arco system will be exclusivly used by the German merchant marine. It is said by the electrical engineers here that the government is drafting a bill to regulate wireless telegraphy and tending to uniformity of service and that the effect of this bill will be to exclude the Marconi system from Germany. The newspapers here say that this bill will thwart Marconi's efforts through the strong capital behind him to monopolize the wireless telegraphy business of the world.

BOUND FOR NORTH DAKOTA.

Over Three Thousand Dunkards Coming From the East.

Chicago, March 19.—During the next few days over 3,000 Dunkards and others will pass through Chicago en route to new homes in the Northwest. The movement will include entire families from Indiana, Ohio, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and they will for the most part go to the Mouse River district of North Dakota. Good crops in the Northwest last year and the glowing reports sent back by preceding settlers are the causes that have induced the present heavy immigration.

HIS ANNUAL ONSLAUGHT.

Representative Hepburn Speaks
Against River and Harbor Bill.

Washington, March 19.—The general debate on the river and harbor appropriation bill in the house was enlivened by Mr. Hepburn (Iowa) who made his annual onslaught on the measure. Contrary to his usual custom, Mr. Hepburn found several things in the bill to commend although some of his criticisms were quite severe.
The other speakers were Messrs.
Bail (Tex.) and Lawrence (Mass.), both members of the committee, and Messrs. White (Ky.), Thompson, and Burnett (Ala.), who spoke in favor of improvements of interests to their districts. Saturday, April 26, was set aside for memorial services on the late Representative Stokes of South Carolina, and the late Representative Crum of Michigan.

Killed by a Premature Blast.

Lead, S. D., March 19.—A premature blast killed George W. Holvey on the 200-foot level of the Homestake mine.
He was firing block shots and one of the charges exploded while he was directly over it, blowing his head entirely off. Holvey was president of the Lead Miners' union.

Slave Dealers Captured or Killed.

Mozambique, Portuguese East Africa, March 19.—The Portuguese troops captured 162 slave dealers and killed 50 others at Pemba Bay recently when the government forces attacked 12 strongholds of the slave dealers and liberated 700 slaves.

AGAIN ON GERMAN SOIL

THE DEUTSCHLAND BEARING
PRINCE HENRY ARRIVES AT
CUXHAVEN.

GREETED BY HIS BROTHER

Emperor William Surrounded by High Officials Extends an Affec-tate Welcome—Crowd Cheers Wildly
and Salutes Are Fired During the Ceremony—Royal Party Leaves for
Kiel on a Warship.

Cuxhaven, March 19.—The return of Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia to German soil was safely accomplished amid all the pomp and circumstance with which the prince's imperial brother has seen fit to mark the successful ending of Prince Henry's American mission.

The same good fortune of freedom
from untoward incidents which characterized the prince's trans-Atlantic journey continued until the end, and the landing occurred during a period of brilliant sunshine after an overcast day.

The Hamburg-American line steamer Deutschland, from Cherbourg, having on board the prince and his suite, was first sighted at 5:30 o'clock. The German battleship Kaiser Wilhelm II.
steamed down the roadstead to meet the Deutschland and returned escorting the big liner. The Deutschland tied up to the new stone quay and was the first ship to dock there.

Emperor William stood upon the quay, surrounded by high naval and municipal officials. As representative of the American embassy at Berlin, Commander William H. Beecher, the naval attaché to the embassy, stood at the emperor's side.

The quay was decorated with the flags of all the states of the empire and the thousands of spectators who covered the roofs of the great warehouse and the wide slopes overlooking the scene, cheered wildly as Prince Henry walked down the gangway from the steamer. Emperor William kissed his brother upon both cheeks and shook hands with the members of his suite, saying a few cheerful sentences to each. In the meantime the guns of the squadron saluted.

Side by side his majesty and Prince Henry then passed down in front of the marine guard, which stood at salute. After this the marine guard passed in review, while the band of the imperial yacht Hohenzollern played the national anthem.

The passengers on the Deutschland crowded to the steamer's rail and cheered heartily during the ceremony.
Some of the American passengers waved little American flags; otherwise
the Stars and Stripes were not flying.
After the inspection of the guard of honor and the veterans by Emperor William, his majesty and his party,
Prince Henry and his staff and Commander Beecher boarded a tender and amid fresh salutes, music and cheering proceeded to the battleship Kaiser Wilhelm II. Upon arriving there the crew of that vessel manned their ship
to receive the royal personages.

The Kaiser Wilhelm II. weighed anchor at a quarter past 7 and started toward Kiel through the canal. A banquet was served on board the warship.

ASKS FOR PROTECTION.

British Consul at New Orleans Thinks
His Life is in Danger.

New Orleans, March 19.—George Van Sittart, British consul at New Orleans, declares his life and property in danger from the mobs and their sympathizers in the city, and has appealed to the mayor and chief of police for police protection. He says that the anonymous letters have grown much more numerous and threatening of late, and that dangerous and suspicious men constantly stand around his consular office as well as his house, contemplating, he believes, an attack on him. He asked, therefore, that a police force be stationed at both places.

Chief of Police Journee promised to investigate, and if there are any grounds for Mr. Van Sittart's fear the request for protection will be granted.
Police protection has been recently granted the British mule stations here,
at the request of the British officers
and Secretary of State Hay.

HAVE TO USE FORCE.

Colombian Government Collects Special Taxes From Liberals.

Panama, Colombia, March 19.—By a government decree published here war taxes of $70,000 and $30,000 are imposed upon the Liberal residents of Panama and Colon respectively. These taxes are the corresponding shares of the tax of $750,000 imposed upon the department of Panama by the national government. A committee composed of the prefect, the treasurers and secretary of the finance bureau and two private citizens has been charged to make this decree effective. The committee is being backed in its efforts by the police and a force of soldiers. The government is obliged to take violent measures to collect these taxes because the Liberals have adopted similar tactics in those parts of the country they control.

Advocates a Corn Tax.

London, March 19.—In the course of a lecture delivered in London, Sir Robert Giffen, the statistician, expressed the opinion that Great Britain's total yearly expenditure for armaments in the future would amount to £150,000, 000 and advocated a duty on corn as preferable to high income tax.

Disappointed With America.

Berlin, March 19.—Five hundred returned emigrants, disappointed with life in the United States, have passed through Berlin on their way to their old homes in Posen, the provinces of East and West Prussia, and in Russia and Austria.

NAVIGATION OPENED.

Steamers on Lake Michigan Are Now Making Regular Trips.

Chicago, March 19.—Navigation on Lake Michigan is fully opened and steamers began running regularly between Chicago and west shore points.
The Alice Stamford from Muskegon was the first in. All east shore points to the Straits of Mackinaw are open to navigation, and the ice has gone out of a good part of Green Bay. Captains of incoming steamers said they had no trouble with the ice, which has practically disappeared from this end of Lake Michigan.

Street Car Strike About Over.

Norfolk, Va., March 19.—The strike of street car men has about died a natural death. There has been a cessation of demonstrations on the part of the strikers and their sympathizers.
It is the general opinion that this was brought about by the sentence of J.
W. Jenkins to two years in the penitentiary on the charge of attempting to wreck a car. The trolley pole was cut and several cars were stoned outside of the city limits during the evening.

St. Paul Primary Election.

St. Paul, March 19.—The primary election held in this city, preliminary to the municipal election, resulted in the renomination of the present incumbent, Robert A. Smith, for mayor
by the Democrats, and former mayor, Frank B. Doran, by the Republicans.
For comptroller Louis Betz was selected by the Democrats, and J. J. McCurdy
by the Republicans.

ADVOCATES OF CUBAN RECIPRO-

CONFERENCE.

AFTER PROTRACTED DEBATE

A Number of Ballots Are Taken and
the Ways and Means Committee Is Sustained by a Vote of From 79 to
57 to 85 to 31—Resolution Adopted
Gives the Form for an Agreement
With Cuba.

Washington, March 19.—The advocates of Cuban reciprocity scored a decisive victory at the conference of Republican members of the house of representatives, the proposition of Chairman Payne of the ways and means committee, for a 20 per cent reduction of duty, with the Sibley amendment, limiting the duration of the reduced rates to Dec. 1, 1903, being adopted by a vote of 85 yeas to 57 nays. This result was reached at 11:30 o'clock, after a protracted debate followed by a series of exciting roll calls. The first test was when Mr. Payne concluded the speech making with a motion for the previous question on all pending propositions. This motion prevailed—78 to 56. A vote was then taken on a substitute offered by Representative Dick of Ohio in behalf of those opposing the reciprocity plan, offering in its stead a plan of direct payment to Cuba covering several years. This was defeated—57 to 79. An amendment by Mr. Morris of Minnesota, to take off the differential on refined sugar was defeated—50 to 72.

The ways and means proposition for reciprocity with the Sibley amendment limiting the duration, was then agreed to—85 to 31. While the voting was in progress quite a number of those who oppose the ways and means plan left the chamber.

Immediately following this vote the conference adjourned, and the long pending controversy over the Cuban reciprocity was determined so far as the Republican conference was concerned. It still remains to be dealt with in the house. The Payne resolution, as adopted, gives the general form of a bill, authorizing the president to negotiate a commercial agreement with Cuba for reciprocal and equivalent concessions, by which the rates of duty shall be reduced at least 20 per cent ad valorem on all articles imported from Cuba into the United States. It also provides that the United States immigration and exclusion laws shall be enacted by the government of Cuba as a preliminary to reciprocity. The Sibley amendment which is adopted as a part of the Payne resolution, recites that the foregoing 20 per cent reduction shall be "limited in its duration and effect to the first day of December, 1903."

PROTECTION OF PRESIDENT.

Senate Has the Measure Under Consideration Under the Day.

Washington, March 19.—For three hours the senate had under consideration the bill providing for the protection of the president of the United States and for the punishment by the United States of those who commit assaults on him. Mr. Bacon (Ga.) opposed the bill and Mr. Hoar (Mass.) and Mr. Mason (Ill.) supported it. Mr. Bacon's argument followed the lines of his speech delivered 10 days ago. Mr. Hoar's speech was largely legal and constitutional. He maintained the right of the government to protect itself against assaults upon its sovereignty through the president. Mr. Mason made an attack upon anarchy and its methods, and incidentally sharply criticized the amendment to the bill offered by Mr. Bacon. He denounced it as opening the door to special privileges for the benefit of assassins of presidents. This drew Mr. Bacon's fire. He considered Mr. Mason's criticism a personal reflection on himself and resented it with heat. An explanation by the Illinois senator cleared the atmosphere.

Earlier in the day a controversy was precipitated by the effort of Mr. Rawlins (Utah) to have printed as a document some Philippine correspondence. Eventually the matter was ordered printed as requested.

London, March 19.—King Edward's bank balance narrowly escaped a reduction to the extent of £229 for a forged endorsement of a check. The latter was drawn "payable to bearer" by General Sir Dighton Probyn, keeper of the king's privy purse. The check was presented at Coutts's bank, where the cashier discovered the forgery. FEAR LIVES ARE LOST.

Steamer Burns in a Harbor Front Fire at Hoboken.

New York, March 19.—Fire destroyed the pier of the Phoenix Steamship line on the Hoboken river front, with many bales of cotton and hay; burned that company's vessel, the British Queen, to a hulk; consumed several lighters and their cargoes, damaged a dock belonging to the Barber Steamship line and for a time threatened the property of the Holland-American line and the huge Campbell stores. The loss, according to estimates, will approximate $1,000,000.

Whether any lives were lost was most difficult to learn. While the conflagration was at its height and after it had been reduced by the firemen and fire boats, rumors were rife that several men perished. It is tolerably certain that Chief Engineer Scott of the British Queen, was burned to death on her, and that a sailor named Janzen met the same fate. One of the men who escaped says that he saw several men leap into the water when the steamer became enveloped in fire and he saw few if any of these rescued.

It is not unlikely that some of the longshoremen and stevedores, who swarmed the vessel, may still have to be accounted for.

MINERS IN CONVENTION.

An Important Meeting Being Held in the Anthracite Districts.

Shamokin, Pa., March 19.—The most important convention of hard coal miners since that which resulted in the memorable strike of 1900 began here during the day. The three anthracite coal districts, known technically as districts 1, 7 and 9, United Miners of America, are represented by over 600 delegates, the majority of whom presented their credentials. The failure of the operators to meet the demands of the miners' union was the principal topic of discussion among the delegates prior to the convention. Many of them are insistent in their demand for recognition of the union but the impression prevails that if other concessions are made by the operators the matter of recognition will be permitted to rest for the present. The convention merely organized and the proceedings were simply preliminary to the more important work to follow. President Mitchell of the International Mineworkers' union will preside at the meetings.

TO HEAD MARCONI OFF.

German Government Opposed to a Universal Wireless Telegraphy Trust.

Berlin, March 19.—Emperor William has issued an order as the result of recent tests in which he designates the Slaby-Arco system of wireless telegraphy for exclusive use in the German navy and on the coast signal stations. It is estimated that the Slaby-Arco system will be exclusively used by the German merchant marine. It is said by the electrical engineers here that the government is drafting a bill to regulate wireless telegraphy and tending to uniformity of service and that the effect of this bill will be to exclude the Marconi system from Germany. The newspapers here say that this bill will thwart Marconi's efforts through the strong capital behind him to monopolize the wireless telegraphy business of the world.

Contrary to his usual custom, Mr. Hepburn found several things in the bill to commend although some of his criticisms were quite severe. The other speakers were Messrs. AGAIN ON GERMAN SOIL

PRINCE HENRY ARRIVES AT
CUXHAVEN.

GREETED BY HIS BROTHER

Emperor William Surrounded by High Officials Extends an Affectionate Welcome—Crowd Cheers Wildly
and Salutes Are Fired During the Ceremony—Royal Party Leaves for
Kiel on a Warship.

Cuxhaven, March 19.—The return of Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia to German soil was safely accomplished amid all the pomp and circumstance with which the prince's imperial brother has seen fit to mark the successful ending of Prince Henry's American mission.

The same good fortune of freedom from untoward incidents which characterized the prince's transatlantic journey continued until the end, and the landing occurred during a period of brilliant sunshine after an overcast day.

The Hamburg-American line steamer Deutschland, from Cherbourg, having on board the prince and his suite, was first sighted at 5:30 o'clock. The German battleship Kaiser Wilhelm II. steamed down the roadstead to meet the Deutschland and returned escorting the big liner. The Deutschland tied up to the new stone quay and was the first ship to dock there.

Emperor William stood upon the quay, surrounded by high naval and municipal officials. As representative of the American embassy at Berlin, Commander William H. Beecher, the naval attaché to the embassy, stood at the emperor's side.

The quay was decorated with the flags of all the states of the empire and the thousands of spectators who covered the roofs of the great warehouse and the wide slopes overlooking the scene, cheered wildly as Prince Henry walked down the gangway from the steamer. Emperor William kissed his brother upon both cheeks and shook hands with the members of his suite, saying a few cheerful sentences to each. In the meantime the guns of the squadron saluted.

Side by side his majesty and Prince Henry then passed down in front of the marine guard, which stood at salute. After this the marine guard passed in review, while the band of the imperial yacht Hohenzollern played the national anthem.

The passengers on the Deutschland crowded to the steamer's rail and cheered heartily during the ceremony. Some of the American passengers waved little American flags; otherwise the Stars and Stripes were not flying.

After the inspection of the guard of honor and the veterans by Emperor William, his majesty and his party, Prince Henry and his staff and Commander Beecher boarded a tender and amid fresh salutes, music and cheering proceeded to the battleship Kaiser Wilhelm II. Upon arriving there the crew of that vessel manned their ship to receive the royal personages.

The Kaiser Wilhelm II. weighed anchor at a quarter past 7 and started toward Kiel through the canal. A banquet was served on board the warship.

ASKS FOR PROTECTION.

British Consul at New Orleans Thinks His Life Is in Danger.

New Orleans, March 19.—George Van Sittart, British consul at New Orleans, declares his life and property in danger from the efforts and poor sympathizers in the city, and has appealed to the mayor and chief of police for police protection. He says that the anonymous letters have grown much more numerous and threatening of late, and that dangerous and suspicious men constantly stand around his consular office as well as his house, contemplating, he believes, an attack on him. He asked, therefore, that a police force be stationed at both places.

Chief of Police Journee promised to investigate, and if there are any grounds for Mr. Van Sittart's fear the request for protection will be granted. Police protection has been recently granted the British mule stations here, at the request of the British officers and Secretary of State Hay.

HAVE TO USE FORCE.

Colombian Government Forces Special Taxes From Liberals.

Panama, Colombia, March 19.—By a government decree published here war taxes of $70,000 and $30,000 are imposed upon the Liberal residents of Panama and Colon respectively. These taxes are the corresponding shares of the tax of $750,000 imposed upon the department of Panama by the national government. A committee composed of the prefect, the treasurer and secretary of the finance bureau and two private citizens has been charged to make this decree effective. The committee is being backed in its efforts by the police and a force of soldiers. The government is obliged to take violent measures to collect these taxes because the Liberals have adopted similar tactics in those parts of the country they control.

Advocates a Corn Tax.

London, March 19.—In the course of a lecture delivered in London, Sir Robert Giffen, the statistician, expressed the opinion that Great Britain's total yearly expenditure for armaments in the future would amount to £150,000,000 and advocated a duty on corn as preferable to high income tax.

Disappointed With America.

Berlin, March 19.—Five hundred returned emigrants, disappointed with life in the United States, have passed through Berlin on their way to their old homes in Posen, the provinces of East and West Prussia, and in Russia and Austria.

NAVIGATION OPENED.

Steamers on Lake Michigan Are Now Making Regular Trips.

Chicago, March 19.—Navigation on Lake Michigan is fully opened and steamers began running regularly between Chicago and west shore points. The Alice Stamford from Muskegon was the first in. All east shore points to the Straits of Mackinaw are open to navigation, and the ice has gone out of a good part of Green Bay. Captains of incoming steamers said they had no trouble with the ice, which has practically disappeared from this end of Lake Michigan.

Street Car Strike About Over.

Norfolk, Va., March 19.—The strike of street car men has about died a natural death. There has been a cessation of demonstrations on the part of the strikers and their sympathizers. It is the general opinion that this was brought about by the sentence of J. W. Jenkins to two years in the penitentiary on the charge of attempting to wreck a car. The trolley pole was cut and several cars were stoned outside of the city limits during the evening.

St. Paul Primary Election.

St. Paul, March 19.—The primary election held in this city, preliminary to the municipal election, resulted in the renomination of the present incumbent, Robert A. Smith, for mayor by the Democrats, and former mayor, Frank B. Doran, by the Republicans. For comptroller Louis Betz was selected by the Democrats, and J. J. McCarty by the Republicans.

A RULING of the supreme court of Minnesota in a case against the Modern Woodmen, says the Crookston Journal, is to the effect that policies are void, even if the lodge clerk advances all the assessments for a member. Each member must pay his assessment to the proper lodge officer, in time, or his policy is of no account. This rule of law therefore applies to all fraternal orders, and members should govern themselves accordingly.

THE St. Cloud Journal-Press says the interest in the forthcoming meeting of the district committee of the Sixth district democrats at the Grand Central hotel on Friday is the basis of no little interest among the republicans as well as the democrats. The meeting, it is believed, will have no little share in determining the identity of the candidate of the democrats for congress in this district next fall. It is understood in several places in the district that Dr. Werner Hemstead, of Brainerd, will have the call on a nomination, while Dr. J. A. DuBois, of Sauk Centre, and Theo. Bruener, of this city, are prominently mentioned in connection with the honor.

THE Little Falls Transcript notes that under the old political system of nominating by conventions composed of delegates that had been chosen by a county convention, that had in turn been formed of delegates from precincts, there was much opportunity for misrepresentation and occasionally there was fraud in the precinct caucus. Defeated candidates often felt that they had been unfairly treated, and that the nomination was not in accord with the real wishes of the party voters. And the fact that frauds could be practiced was occasionally used as a justification for protesting, regardless of the existence of a fair reason for doing so. That is why there was such a strong demand for the primary election law, under which nominations will be made by direct vote of the members of the party. Under these conditions there can be no question of the fairness of a nomination, or the clear title of the nominee to the support of all who claim to be party men. The system of primary elections makes an open, fair contest necessary, and party papers and party voters have no reason for protesting against the result. Some responsibilities as well as privileges go with party membership.

ANDERSON LAW IS A STUNNER

There are Some Very Intricate Provisions That Puzzles County Officials.

NOT MUCH GAIN IN IT.

Delinquent Property to Go to the Bidder Charging the Lowest Rate of Interest.

County officials who have been examining the Anderson law passed at the last legislature do not think it will be of any particular benefit to them or the county.

The Duluth Herald says:

"A good deal was hoped for from this bill. It was taken out of the tax code and amended by both houses rather freely, and when it went through members of the legislature who had been working hard to get some tax legislation through just for the looks of it breathed a sigh of relief. 'We can't be 'skunked' now,' they said. 'We have passed some tax legislation.'"

"If it turns out, as county officers who have examined it say, that nothing has been gained in the passage of the Anderson bill, the benefits of the special session will be slimmer than ever. The Anderson law takes up the collection of real estate taxes beginning with the imposition through the sale and redemption, etc."

"One important change leaves the county in a peculiar situation. The new law provides that the delinquent tax sale shall be held on the second Monday in May, while the old law provides that it shall be held on the first Monday in May. Before the Anderson law was passed the county had published its delinquent tax list and notice of sale and that sale has been advertised to take place on the first Monday in May. Whether the sale can take place on the second Monday, when it has been advertised to take place on the first Monday, and how it can be changed to the second Monday, as the law requires, when it was advertised for the first Monday, are questions that are bothering county officers and that are yet unsettled."

"The verdict of county officers who have examined the Anderson law is that it does not improve upon the old law and that in some respects it is more cumbersome and therefore more expensive and less satisfactory. One change that County Auditor Halden disapproves of is in regard to the sale. Property is to be sold not to the party that will bid the most for it, but to the one that will agree to charge the least interest. Under the old law the interest was 12 per cent, and it cannot exceed that under the new law. But instead of bidding so much for the property under the new deal, bidders will offer to pay the taxes and penalties, and will bid down on the interest. The one that will take the least rate of interest is the successful bidder."

"The fear is that this will act as a protection to delinquents. During forfeited tax sales here it was a common thing for a man to come in and bid the minimum price 'for the owner,' and other bidders, not desiring to bid against the owner, would keep out. If the same thing was done with the delinquent sale under the new law, owners might come in and bid in their own property at a nominal rate of interest, and thus escaping paying high rates. With this hope in prospect, the effect will be to make property owners less careful about prompt payments."

"Another change that county officers do not like touches the distribution of interest, penalties and costs. Under the old system the county revenue fund got this, and there was no trouble about apportioning it. Now it has to be divided between the subdivisions the same as other receipts, except that the state does not get a share. This exception means much work for it will be necessary for a separate apportionment to be made on tax receipts and on interest, penalties and costs. If the state got a share the latter could be apportioned with the taxes."

Under the old law the interest was 12 per cent, and it cannot exceed that under the new law. But instead of bidding so much for the property under the new deal, bidders will offer to pay the taxes and penalties, and will bid down on the interest. The one that will take the least rate of interest is the successful bidder.

"The fear is that this will act as a protection to delinquents. During forfeited tax sales here it was a common thing for a man to come in and bid the minimum price 'for the owner,' and other bidders, not desiring to bid against the owner, would keep out. If the same thing was done with the delinquent sale under the new law, owners might come in and bid in their own property at a nominal rate of interest, and thus escaping paying high rates. With this hope in prospect, the effect will be to make property owners less careful about prompt payments.

"Another change that county officers do not like touches the distribution of interest, penalties and costs. Under the old system the county revenue fund got this, and there was no trouble about apportioning it. Now it has to be divided between the subdivisions the same as other receipts, except that the state does not get a share. This exception means much work for it will be necessary for a separate apportionment to be made on tax receipts and on interest, penalties and costs. If the state got a share the latter could be apportioned with the taxes.

This Morning From Catholic Church.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Maria Spalding, were held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from St. Paul's Episcopal church and were very largely attended, which showed the high esteem in which deceased was held by many in this city. Though she had lived a very retired life on account of being an invalid, those who came in contact with her and knew her inward thoughts learned to love and respect her. It was one of the most remarkable cases in history, as has been stated before, and it is the wonder of all, for at all times, though a sufferer, she exhibited a feeling of deep interest in the welfare of those near and dear to her.

Rev. George H. Davis, of Mankato, was present to officiate at the funeral and the sermon which he preached was full of good things about the career of the deceased. She was a member of the Episcopal church and Rev. Davis was her close friend when he lived in the city.

Word has been received in this city by his parents of the success of James Patrick Boyle in the primary oratorical contest which was held at the Indiana University at Bloomington, Ind. This will be gratifying news to "Jim's" many friends in this city. He has been an honor to Minnesota and the City of Brainerd and his efforts in the big contest at Columbus will be watched with interest.

The following excerpts are taken from the Daily Student, a publication issued at the Indiana University:

"Last night at the men's gymnasium James Patrick Boyle, of Minnesota, won first place in the primary oratorical contest. He will represent Indiana University at Columbus, Ohio, in the Central Oratorical League contest, to be held sometime during the ensuing term. Mr. Boyle is a member of the class of '03, and is one of the strongest students in the university. He has invariably succeeded in everything he has undertaken. His speech on 'The Foreigner and Democracy,' lent itself to forcible and persuasive delivery. Boyle spoke with ease and his gestures were spontaneous.

"James Patrick Boyle then delivered his oration on 'The Foreigner and Democracy.' He spoke about the foreigners at Tower, a little town in northern Minnesota, erecting the first monument to McKinley.

"He commended them for their loyalty and patriotism; for their industry and perseverance, and for their determination to rise. Mr. Boyle told of the wonderful progress of these foreigners in our land and spoke of the great interest displayed by them in governmental affairs.

"He then attempted to show that democracy is fundamentally true. He said the foreigners left home and native country not for the gold but for freedom.

"After stating many of the good things which the country gives to the foreigner, he told what the foreigner did for us. He said: 'They are pouring into our veins a fresh blood to make us strong, to make us appreciate our many opportunities; a blood that quickens our faith in democracy.'

SMOOTH FORGER IS CORRALED HERE

Man Giving His Name as Harry

FORGED CHECK IN THIS CITY.

Worked a Smooth Game at Bemidji, Walker and Other Places on M. & I.

Deputy Sheriff Scribner, of Cass county, made a catch in Brainerd that was a good one which may result in bringing to justice a foxy man with the quill.

Some time ago a suave, slick individual dropped into Bemidji and going to a bank in that city procured some blank checks. He wrote two of them out payable to himself for $27.50 each and signed the name of John Sibley to them. He cashed the checks all right as sibley is a well-known lumberman through the northern part of the state.

King then moved down a peg and landed at Walker where he again prepared a check to be cashed which was drawn on the Cass County Bank and purported to be signed by Thatcher & Lynch, the leading contractors. He took this check down to Bacus where he succeeded in getting it cashed.

He then arrived at Brainerd and went to the Northern Pacific Bank, and procuring a blank check he wrote out another check for $48.00 and again brought into play the name of John Sibley. The check was taken to Johnson's Pharmacy and $6 was handed over to the "foxy quiller" on the check. About this time Attorney Scribner happened along and started out on a still hunt. He located his man and took him in custody.

Sheriff Hardy states that there is considerable inquiry for this man and it is believed that he has been mixed up before in just such deals. He will have a hearing in a few days.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"WHOSE BABY ARE YOU?"

"Whose Baby are You?" rather a pertinent question, but applies to everybody including infant, juvenile and adult. We are all more or less some one's baby. Our mothers', fathers', wives', husbands' sweet-hearts' or lovers'. So what's the use? There's always someone who has a kindly feeling for us. But that's got nothing to do with the question at hand. If you are at all interested to know whose baby you are, why the mystery, if it is such, can be easily solved to your utter satisfaction Monday, March 24 at the Brainerd Opera House, when the cleverest of farces bearing this catchy title will be presented. Miss May Vokes and Chas. W. Bowser will be seen in the comedy, supported by a specially selected cast of farceurs.

Mr. Myron B. Rice, who produced that clever comedy "My Friend from India," has the managerial reins of this company in his experienced hands, which is a positive guarantee to the theatre going public, that both farce and company are of superior merit.

RICHARD GOLDEN IN "OLD JED PROUTY."

Richard Golden's "Old Jed Prouty" is a play depicting life in a country village in Maine. The mere statement as a matter of publication carries as much interest as any other play. But to become a witness to a genuine reproduction of a life history, embodying the lights and shades of sorrow and mirth, and always conscious that it is there, we have before us a history, and the actors are simply a reproduction of men and women, who really exist. While we laugh heartily at the quaint sayings of Old Jed Prouty, we are conscious that we are moved by the simplicity of the story, and for a time forget that it is a stage picture, in the absorbing interest of the various characters. Many of the characters outside of the composite type of "Old Jed Prouty" are accurate reproductions of living people. The humor, quaint in expression and blended with a serious vein, enhances the value of the action and becomes of absorbing interest to the end.

Suit has been begun by the city of West Superior against the Land & River Improvement company for tax money which the city claims the company still owes. The amount involved is about $250,000. The city claims that during the Starkweather administration the land company paid its taxes to the city in bonds that were issued for the improvement of its own property. For that reason the mayor claims the city can either collect from the company on the bonds which the former now holds, or if the bonds are declared void, can still collect for the original taxes.

"James Patrick Boyle then delivered his oration on 'The Foreigner and Democracy.' He spoke about the foreigners at Tower, a little town in northern Minnesota, erecting the first monument to McKinley.

"He commended them for their loyalty and patriotism; for their industry and perseverance, and for their determination to rise. Mr. Boyle told of the wonderful progress of these foreigners in our land and spoke of the great interest displayed by them in governmental affairs.

"He then attempted to show that democracy is fundamentally true. He said the foreigners left home and native country not for the gold but for freedom.

"After stating many of the good things which the country gives to the foreigner, he told what the foreigner did for us. He said: 'They are pouring into our veins a fresh blood to make us strong, to make us appreciate our many opportunities; a blood that quickens our faith in democracy.'

SMOOTH FORGER IS CORRALED HERE

Man Giving His Name as Harry
King Does a Few Tricks With His Quill.

FORGED CHECK IN THIS CITY.

Worked a Smooth Game at Bemidji, Walker and Other Places on M. & I.

Deputy Sheriff Scribner, of Cass county, made a catch in Brainerd that was a good one which may result in bringing to justice a foxy man with the quill.

Some time ago a suave, slick individual dropped into Bemidji and going to a bank in that city procured some blank checks. He wrote two of them out payable to himself for $27.50 each and signed the name of John Sibley to them. He cashed the checks all right as sibley is a well-known lumberman through the northern part of the state.

King then moved down a peg and landed at Walker where he again prepared a check to be cashed which was drawn on the Cass County Bank and purported to be signed by Thatcher & Lynch, the leading contractors. He took this check down to Bacus where he succeeded in getting it cashed.

He then arrived at Brainerd and went to the Northern Pacific Bank, and procuring a blank check he wrote out another check for $48.00 and again brought into play the name of John Sibley. The check was taken to Johnson's Pharmacy and $6 was handed over to the "foxy quill" on the check. About this time Attorney Scribner happened along and started out on a still hunt. He located his man and took him in custody.

Sheriff Hardy states that there is considerable inquiry for this man and it is believed that he has been mixed up before in just such deals. He will have a hearing in a few days.

If you are crooked, long, slim, short, or stout, or can't get ready made suits to fit, why not have your measure taken for a suit today or tomorrow. Our tailor is here and he will fit you right, and you don't have to pay a high price either.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"Whose Baby are You?" rather a pertinent question, but applies to everybody including infant, juvenile and adult. We are all more or less some one's baby. Our mothers', fathers', wives', husbands' sweet-hearts' or lovers'. So what's the use? There's always someone who has a kindly feeling for us. But that's got nothing to do with the question at hand. If you are at all interested to know whose baby you are, why the mystery, if it is such, can be easily solved to your utter satisfaction Monday, March 24 at the Brainerd Opera House, when the cleverest of farces bearing this catchy title will be presented. Miss May Vokes and Chas. W. Bowser will be seen in the comedy, supported by a specially selected cast of farceurs.

Mr. Myron B. Rice, who produced that clever comedy "My Friend from India," has the managerial reins of this company in his experienced hands, which is a positive guarantee to the theatre going public, that both farce and company are of superior merit.

RICHARD GOLDEN IN "OLD JED PROUTY."

Richard Golden's "Old Jed Prouty" is a play depicting life in a country village in Maine. The mere statement as a matter of publication carries as much interest as any other play. But to become a witness to a genuine reproduction of a life history, embodying the lights and shades of sorrow and mirth, and always conscious that it is there, we have before us a history, and the actors are simply a reproduction of men and women, who really exist. While we laugh heartily at the quaint sayings of Old Jed Prouty, we are conscious that we are moved by the simplicity of the story, and for a time forget that it is a stage picture, in the absorbing interest of the various characters. Many of the characters outside of the composite type of "Old Jed Prouty" are accurate reproductions of living people. The humor, quaint in expression and blended with a serious vein, enhances the value of the action and becomes of absorbing interest to the end.

Suit has been begun by the city of West Superior against the Land & River Improvement company for tax money which the city claims the company still owes. The amount involved is about $250,000. The city claims that during the Starkweather administration the land company paid its taxes to the city in bonds that were issued for the improvement of its own property. For that reason the mayor claims the city can either collect from the company on the bonds which the former now holds, or if the bonds are declared void, can still collect for the original taxes.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED.

Former Member of a New York Brokerage Firm Under Arrest.

New York, March 19.—Max C. Mayer, formerly a member of the brokerage firm of Rathborne, Mayer & Rathborne, was arrested at Bayonne, N. J., charged with embezzlement of funds said to amount in all to $100,000. The charge was made by C. L. Rathborne & Son, the successors of the firm of which Mayer was formerly a member. He was taken before Judge John A. Blair of Jersey City, on a warrant, charging him with embezzlement in one instance of $4,800, and was released on a $25,000 bail. Subsequently an indictment was found against him by the grand jury of New York county. After his arrest Mayer said: "I have asked my attorneys to make a detailed statement. The charge will not stand when it is explained. I was in partnership with Mr. Rathborne, and it is because we dissolved that partnership that this has occurred."

RAILWAY WAR SETTLED.

Harriman and Clark Will Leave Their Differences to Engineer Bogue.

San Francisco, March 19.—The Post says: The war between E. H. Harriman and United States Senator W. A. Clark, which has been bitterly waged in Nevada for a right of way in the southwestern part of that state gives promise of being settled very soon. The two millionaires have decided to abide by the decision of Virgil C. Bogue, a civil engineer. Engineer Bogue was chief constructor for the late Jay Gould and also directed the construction of the most important portions of the Northern Pacific railway. He has left for Nevada and expects to adjust the differences of the railway interests within a short time.

EIGHT ROADS NOTIFIED

INTERSTATE COMMISSION BEGINS SUIT AGAINST WESTERN LINES.

RESTRAINING ORDER ASKED

Violation of the "Act to Regulate Commerce" and the Sherman Anti Trust Law Charged—Railways Not Expected to Make Any Serious Objection as They Profess to Be Opposed to Rate Cutting.

Chicago, March 19.—Injunction proceedings will be started in Kansas City by Attorney William Day of the interstate commerce commission against the following railways operating between Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago: Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Wabash rail road, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Chicago Great Western, Chicago and Alton, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

Officials of these roads have been furnished with a copy of the bill to be sued for before Judge Phillips of the United States court at Kansas City.

The bill to be filed sets forth that about March 15, the interstate commerce commission requested the United States attorney general to direct the district attorney to begin proceedings either by injunction or by some other method to prevent the Chicago-Kansas City railways from violating the "Act to regulate commerce." The attorney general at once directed the bringing of the suit both on the ground that the matters complained of are in violation of the act to regulate commerce and in violation of the Sherman act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies.

After setting forth that the accused roads are common carriers and are subject to the provisions of the interstate commerce act, the bill recites that they have made schedules of 23½ cents per 100 pounds on packing house products from Kansas City to Chicago, this being until Jan. 10.

The Only Lawful Rate.

Then it is declared that the railways involved secretly made a rate of 18½ cents, with corresponding reductions, through to New York, and through unlawful combinations received large quantities of packing house products later rebating to certain shippers the difference between the published rate and the charge rate. Then the bill sets forth the facts brought forth at the examination before the interstate commerce commission in this city and an injunction supplemented by a temporary restraining order against the defendants is asked for.

The general officers and general counsel of some of the roads had a conference to decide on some course of action. While no definite course of action has been agreed on it is believed that no serious objections will be offered to the injunction. Most of the larger railroad systems profess to be opposed to rate cutting and in favor of paying rates. They say they will be the gainers if rates are maintained as it is the small and indirect lines that are cutting rates to hold their own against the big companies, and that the latter are forced to meet the cut rates. The same charges of secret rates and rebates are made in regard to the grain shipments from Kansas City.

ASKED BY JENKINS.

Wisconsin Congressman Desires Information Regarding Cuba.

Washington, March 19.—Representative Jenkins of Wisconsin introduced a resolution directing the house committee on judiciary to report on a number of questions relating to the present status of Cuba, viz:

"Is Cuba, as far as the United States is concerned, foreign or domestic territory?"

"Has the United States exercised sovereignty over the islands?"

"Has the United States the title to the islands, if not, where does the title rest?"

Numerous other questions are asked by the resolution.

Mr. Jenkins holds that when the sovereignty of Spain over the island ended it rested with the United States and cannot be suspended.

OLEO BILL NEXT.

Republican Steering Committee Decides on Senate's Programme.

Washington, March 19.—The Republican steering committee of the senate decided to give the first place in the senate after disposing of the pending business to the oleomargarine bill and to allow that to be followed by the Chinese exclusion bill. The committee discussed giving the Nicaraguan canal bill the third place on the calendar, but decided not to act yet, inasmuch as it is considered probable that the discussion of the oleomargarine and the Chinese bills will consume some time.

The war revenue repeal bill, like the appropriation bills, is of a privileged character and can be taken up at any time after being reported.

Deaf and Dumb Asylum Burns.

Jackson, Miss., March 19.—The state institution for the deaf and dumb, located in this city was entirely destroyed by fire during the day. There were no fatalities, all of the inmates of the building have been rescued. The fire is supposed to have originated from an electric wire.

To Connect Lake Erie and the Ohio.

Washington, March 19.—Chairman Davidson of the house committee on railways and canals was authorized to report the bill to incorporate the Lake Erie and Ohio Ship Canal company with authority to construct a canal connecting Lake Erie and the Ohio river.

LACKS JURISDICTION.

Court martial of Major Waller at Manila at a Standstill.

Manila, March 19.—The court martial appointed to try Major Littleton W. T. Waller and Lieutenant John A. Day of the marine corps on the charge of executing natives of the island of Samar without trial, held its first session during the day. Major Waller was represented by Captain Arthur T. Marix of the marine corps; Major Edwin F. Glenn of the army and Mr. Sutro, a lawyer. General William H. Bissbee presided.

Captain Marix pleaded that the court lacked jurisdiction, as marines cannot be tried by the army except when attached to the service, whereas Major Waller returned to duty with the marines in February, though the acts charged occurred in January, and consequently the army had voluntarily forfeited its right to a trial. The orders of either General Chaffee, Secretary Long or the president, Captain Marix held, were not sufficient to legalize the proceedings. The court after a lengthy consideration of the matter decided that the point was well taken. General Chaffee is now considering the court's decision and probably will leave the final decision to the authorities at Washington. The court in the meanwhile is held awaiting orders.

PREPARING FOR CORONATION.

Disposal of King Edward's Guests Puzzles the Court Officials.

London, March 19.—Every department of the king's household is busily engaged in the stupendous task of preparing for the coronation ceremonies. So very long is the list of the foreign princes and ambassadors who will be present that the court officials are at their wits' ends to decide how to dispose of his majesty's guests. Every available room in Buckingham palace and the other royal residences is already preempted and the lord chamberlain is gladly availing himself of offers of many of the finest residences in London. The Belgraveia and Buckingham Palace hotels have been requisitioned in their entirety, four houses in Grosvenor Square have been taken, and, in addition, the lord chamberlain has thankfully accepted the proffer of Dorchester house, Chesterfield house, Hartcourt and Wimbourne house.

The Maharajah of Jeypoor, one of the many Indian notables coming to the coronation, has chartered an Anchor line steamer to convey himself and his suite to England.

CHEERS FOR HOHENZOLLERNS.

Remarkable Demonstration Occurs in Austrian Reichsrath.

Vienna, March 19.—Cheers for the Hohenzollerns were given in the reichsrath and led to a very great uproar. Deputy Schoenerer (Pan-German) started the applause after a violent speech, during which he declared that his party aimed at the creation of a federal relationship between Austria and Germany and would oppose every government failing to help in bringing about such relationship. Then Herr Schoenerer called for three cheers for the Hohenzollerns and the Pan-Germans responded heartily. Amidst protests from the Rightists and Centrists, Herr Schoenerer was called to order.

Noisy scenes followed between the Czechs and Pan-Germans. The former denounced Herr Schoenerer and declared they stood firmly by the Austrian emperor and Austrian empire.

HEARD SOME PLAIN TALK.

Former Prison Chaplain Discourses on the Evils of Betting.

London, March 19.—The select committee of the house of lords appointed to investigate the evils of betting and the remedies therefor, heard some plain talk from the Rev. J. W. Horsley, who, as former chaplain of Clerkenwell prison, had been in contact with 100,000 criminals. The Rev. Mr. Horsley had traced many of the crimes he had investigated to betting, which he declared was due to the example of the aristocracy. "If," he said, "the king would say tomorrow, 'I will never again go to a race course where betting is practiced,' the evil would entirely disappear."

MRS. FOSTER PROTESTS.

Says Women Are Deliberately Excluded From Government Service.

Washington, March 19.—Mrs. J. Ellen Foster of this city submitted to the civil service commission a protest against what she termed a deliberate and systematic exclusion of women from appointment in the government service. Henry Brackwall of the National Woman's Suffrage association, has made a similar protest and the commission will consider the matter, though it is not yet decided whether it will take any action.

TO SUCCEED HITCHCOCK.

Pension Commissioner Evans Will Be Made Secretary of the Interior.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 19.—Close personal friends here of Pension Commissioner H. Clay Evans claim to have information that President Roosevelt will make him secretary of the interior. It is said Secretary Hitchcock will resign soon and that Evans will be offered his place. It is said the change will occur within 30 days.

A Novelty in Lights.

"Bouillottes," or card table lights, are new, artistic and useful, although rather expensive. They are low, three lights in each and so arranged by having metallic shades over each light as to throw all the light upon the table. These lights are easily moved about and can be used with electricity or candles.

To Investigate Major Davis.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED.

Former Member of a New York Brokerage Firm Under Arrest.

New York, March 19.—Max C. Mayer, formerly a member of the brokerage firm of Rathbone, Mayer & Rathbone, was arrested at Bayonne, N. J., charged with embezzlement of funds said to amount in all to $100,000. The charge was made by C. L. Rathbone & Son, the successors of the firm of which Mayer was formerly a member. He was taken before Judge John A. Blair of Jersey City, on a warrant, charging him with embezzlement in one instance of $4,800, and was released on a $25,000 bail. Subsequently an indictment was found against him by the grand jury of New York county. After his arrest Mayer said: "I have asked my attorneys to make a detailed statement. The charge will not stand when it is explained. I was in partnership with Mr. Rathbone, and it is because we dissolved that partnership that this has occurred."

INTERSTATE COMMISSION BEGINS SUIT AGAINST WESTERN LINES.

RESTRAINING ORDER ASKED

Violation of the "Act to Regulate Commerce" and the Sherman Anti Trust Law Charged—Railways Not Expected to Make Any Serious Objection as They Profess to Be Opposed to Rate Cutting.

Chicago, March 19.—Injunction proceedings will be started in Kansas City by Attorney William Day of the interstate commerce commission against the following railway companies operating between Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago: Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Wabash railroad, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Chicago Great Western, Chicago and Alton, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

Officials of these roads have been furnished with a copy of the bill to be sued for before Judge Phillips of the United States court at Kansas City.

The bill to be filed sets forth that about March 15, the interstate commerce commission requested the United States attorney general to direct the district attorney to begin proceedings either by injunction or by some other method to prevent the Chicago-Kansas City railways from violating the "Act to regulate commerce." The attorney general at once directed the bringing of the suit both on the ground that the matters complained of are in violation of the act to regulate commerce and in violation of the Sherman act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies.

After setting forth that the accused roads are common carriers and are subject to the provisions of the interstate commerce act, the bill recites that they have made schedules of 23½ cents per 100 pounds on packing house products from Kansas City to Chicago, this being until Jan. 10.

The Only Lawful Rate.

Then it is declared that the railways involved secretly made a rate of 18½ cents, with corresponding reductions, through to New York, and through unlawful combinations received large quantities of packing house products later rebating to certain shippers the difference between the published rate and the charge rate. Then the bill sets forth the facts brought forth at the examination before the interstate commerce commission in this city and an injunction supplemented by a temporary restraining order against the defendants is asked for.

The general officers and general counsel of some of the roads had a conference to decide on some course of action. While no definite course of action has been agreed on it is believed that no serious objections will be offered to the injunction. Most of the larger railroad systems profess to be opposed to rate cutting and in favor of paying rates. They say they will be the gainers if rates are maintained as it is the small and indirect lines that are cutting rates to hold their own against the big companies, and that the latter are forced to meet the cut rates. The same charges of secret rates and rebates are made in regard to the grain shipments from Kansas City.

ASKED BY JENKINS.

Wisconsin Congressman Desires Information Regarding Cuba.

Washington, March 19.—Representative Jenkins of Wisconsin introduced a resolution directing the house committee on judiciary to report on a number of questions relating to the present status of Cuba, viz:

"Is Cuba, as far as the United States is concerned, foreign or domestic territory?"

"Has the United States exercised sovereignty over the islands?"

"Has the United States the title to the islands, if not, where does the title rest?"

Numerous other questions are asked by the resolution.

Mr. Jenkins holds that when the sovereignty of Spain over the island ended it rested with the United States and cannot be suspended.

OLEO BILL NEXT.

Republican Steering Committee Decides on Senate's Programme.

Washington, March 19.—The Republican steering committee of the senate decided to give the first place in the senate after disposing of the pending business to the oleomargarine bill and to allow that to be followed by the Chinese exclusion bill. The committee discussed giving the Nicaraguan canal bill the third place on the calendar, but decided not to act yet, inasmuch as it is considered probable that the discussion of the oleomargarine and the Chinese bills will consume some time.

The war revenue repeal bill, like the appropriation bills, is of a privileged character and can be taken up at any time after being reported.

Deaf and Dumb Asylum Burns.

Jackson, Miss., March 19.—The state institution for the deaf and dumb, located in this city was entirely destroyed by fire during the day. There were no fatalities, all of the inmates of the building have been rescued. The fire is supposed to have originated from an electric wire.

To Connect Lake Erie and the Ohio.

Washington, March 19.—Chairman Davidson of the house committee on railways and canals was authorized to report the bill to incorporate the Lake Erie and Ohio Ship Canal company with authority to construct a canal connecting Lake Erie and the Ohio river.

LACKS JURISDICTION.

Court martial of Major Waller at Manila a Standstill.

Manila, March 19.—The court martial appointed to try Major Littleton W. T. Waller and Lieutenant John A. Day of the marine corps on the charge of executing natives of the island of Samar without trial, held its first session during the day. Major Waller was represented by Captain Arthur T. Marix of the marine corps; Major Edwin F. Glenn of the army and Mr. Sutor, a lawyer. General William H. Bishop presided.

Captain Marix pleaded that the court lacked jurisdiction, as marines cannot be tried by the army except when attached to the service, whereas Major Waller returned to duty with the marines in February, though the acts charged occurred in January, and consequently the army had voluntarily forfeited its right to a trial. The orders of either General Chaffee, Secretary Long or the president, Captain Marix held, were not sufficient to legalize the proceedings. The court after a lengthy consideration of the matter decided that the point was well taken. General Chaffee is now considering the court's decision and probably will leave the final decision to the authorities at Washington. The court in the meanwhile is held awaiting orders.

PREPARING FOR CORONATION.

Disposal of King Edward's Guests Puzzles the Court Officials.

London, March 19.—Every department of the king's household is busily engaged in the stupendous task of preparing for the coronation ceremonies. So very long is the list of the foreign princes and ambassadors who will be present that the court officials are at their wits' ends to decide how to dispose of his majesty's guests. Every available room in Buckingham palace and the other royal residences is already preempted and the lord chamberlain is gladly availing himself of offers of many of the best residences in London. The Belgrave and Buckingham Palace hotels have been requisitioned in their entirety, four houses in Grosvenor Square have been taken, and, in addition, the lord chamberlain has thankfully accepted the proffer of Dorchester house, Chesterfield house, Hartcourt and Wimbourne house.

The Maharajah of Jeypoor, one of the many Indian notables coming to the coronation, has chartered an Anchor line steamer to convey himself and his suite to England.

CHEERS FOR HOHENZOLLERN.

Remarkable Demonstration Occurs in Austrian Reichsrath.

Vienna, March 19.—Cheers for the Hohenzollerns were given in the reichsrath and led to a very great uproar. Deputy Schoenerer (Pan-German) started the applause after a violent speech, during which he declared that his party aimed at the creation of a federal relationship between Austria and Germany and would oppose every government failing to help in bringing about such relationship. Then Herr Schoenerer called for three cheers for the Hohenzollerns and the Pan-Germans responded heartily. Amidst protests from the Rightists and Centrists, Herr Schoenerer was called to order.

Noisy scenes followed between the Czechs and Pan-Germans. The former denounced Herr Schoenerer and declared they stood firmly by the Austrian emperor and Austrian empire.

HEARD SOME PLAIN TALK.

Former Prison Chaplain Discourses on the Evils of Betting.

London, March 19.—The select committee of the house of lords appointed to investigate the evils of betting and the remedies therefor, heard some plain talk from the Rev. J. W. Horsley, who, as former chaplain of Clerkenwell prison, had been in contact with 100,000 criminals. The Rev. Mr. Horsley had traced many of the crimes he had investigated to betting, which he declared was due to the example of the aristocracy. "If," he said, "the king would say tomorrow, 'I will never again go to a race course where betting is practiced,' the evil would entirely disappear."

MRS. FOSTER PROTESTS.

Says Women Are Deliberately Excluded from Government Service.

Washington, March 19.—Mrs. J. Ellen Foster of this city submitted to the civil service commission a protest against what she termed a deliberate and systematic exclusion of women from appointment in the government service. Henry Brackwall of the National Woman's Suffrage association, has made a similar protest and the commission will consider the matter, though it is not yet decided whether it will take any action.

TO SUCCEED HITCHCOCK.

Pension Commissioner Evans Will Be Made Secretary of the Interior.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 19.—Close personal friends here of Pension Commissioner H. Clay Evans claim to have information that President Roosevelt will make him secretary of the interior. It is said Secretary Hitchcock will resign soon and that Evans will be offered his place. It is said the change will occur within 30 days.

A Novelty in Lights.

"Bouillottes," or card table lights, are new, artistic and useful, although rather expensive. They are low, three lights in each and so arranged by having metallic shades over each light as to throw all the light upon the table. These lights are easily moved about and can be used with electricity or candles.

To Investigate Major Davis.

Washington, March 19.—By direction of Secretary Root General Chaffee recently appointed a court of inquiry to meet at Manila to inquire into the allegations respecting the official conduct of Major George B. Davis, commissary U. S. A., while acting as depot commissary of subsistence at Manila. The court was convened at Major Davis' request.
